

Booking conditions Cookery Events

You have booked or are considering booking a cookery evening with us at ROT Store & Kitchen. Here is some information regarding the night, pricing and booking conditions.

Price 995kr/person excluding VAT

By 11.00 the latest the same day we need to know how many you will be. We debit you for the amount of people you have announced by then. Payment can be made in store or by invoice.

If you cancel with less than 14-day notice, we will charge you 5'000 SEK including VAT.

When you have booked a date, you agree upon a collective three course dinner according to our seasonally adjusted menu suggestions. We need to know your choice of menu at least a week in advance to be able to secure availability of produce.

Let us know if anyone in the group is allergic or would prefer any kind of special diet. We have no problems making the appropriate arrangements.

You bring alcoholic beverages yourselves. Feel free to follow our wine recommendations. We have plenty of tasty non-alcoholic alternatives in store from small-scale producers. You arrive at the store around 17.30. We will prepare snacks for you to enjoy with your group.

Your host for the night will talk you through the menu. Afterwards, you will collect the produce from the store and start cooking in our downstairs kitchen. You are the cooks and we instruct and coach.

Once the cooking is under way it takes about 90 minutes until the first dish is served.

A warm welcome to our food cellar!
